HEY, I'M JARNEEC

Military Spouse+ Mom + K-Drama Girl + Language lover + Musically Talented + Follower of Jesus Christ

Peto's Journey LLC was once a dream sitting on my bookshelf. As I processed the grief of losing my brother I used his story to inspire hope through writing children's books. All the adversities I experienced writing and publishing my very own children's book inspired me to help others with theirs. That is how Peto's Journey LLC was established.

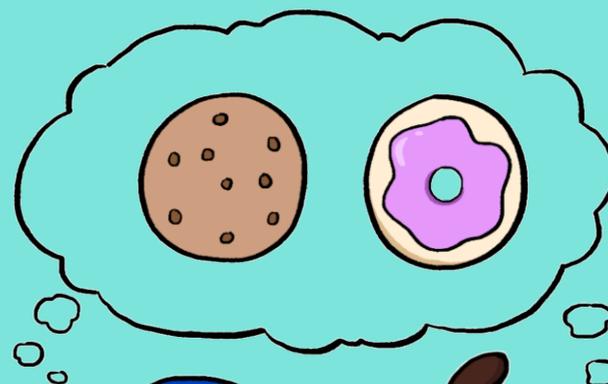

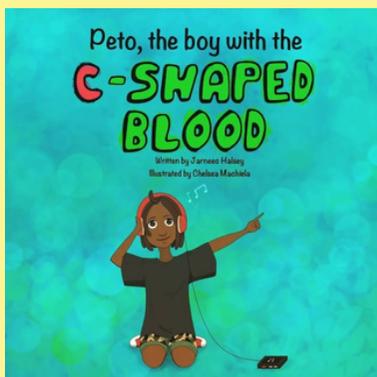

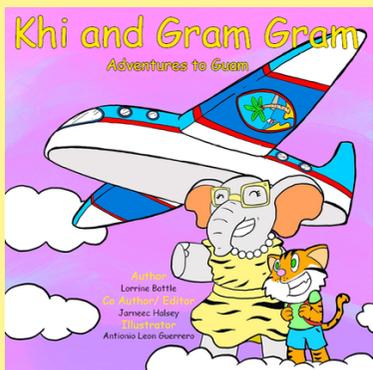

When you work with Peto's Journey LLC expect to building relationships, establish personal growth, and connect with a community of people who encourage one another. We are a business that believes in the power of people. Your purpose and passion matters. to us. We understand that what we believe to be true about ourselves will determine how far we are willing to go to pursue our dreams. When you think you can't let Peto's journey show you that you can. We are here for you in your now struggles and your future victories. We are here for you!
